

25 Ideas to Help YOU Get the Word Out

1. Send a Bible to a serviceman and servicewoman overseas.
2. Give one to the server at a restaurant (along with a generous tip!).
3. When you travel, leave one in your hotel room for the housekeeper - also leave a note of thanks for his/her service.
4. Give one to the teller at the bank drive-through window.
5. Challenge your child to find someone at school who doesn't own a Bible and give one to them.
6. Give one to the business traveler next to you on the plane or on the commuter train.
7. Donate a stack to the church staff to give to those they visit or to needy people who come in asking for help.
8. Donate a box or two to your local homeless shelter.
9. Give a Bible to each of the parents at your child's daycare.
10. Deliver some to the waiting rooms at local doctor's offices and hospitals.
11. Give a Bible to each guest at your wedding or your child's wedding.
12. Include one in a baby shower gift.
13. Give a Bible to each person who visits your yard sale.
14. Leave a Bible with a bow in your mailbox for your mailperson.
15. If you use eBay, send a Bible along with every purchase someone makes from you as a free gift.
16. Donate a case or two to your child's summer camp.
17. Give Bibles to your local library to send home with each book borrower.
18. Send Bibles to prisoners.
19. Send Bibles to overseas ministries.
20. Supply a local Army unit's Chaplain with Bibles for their unit.
21. Include a Bible in your new neighbor's housewarming gift basket.
22. Give one to your apartment maintenance person.
23. Donate a case to a charity in the name of a friend for a birthday /graduation/Christmas gift.
24. Deliver some to your local retirement facility.
25. Offer a Bible along with a tip to your hair stylist.

How many more ways can you get the Word out?

Where do you get Bibles in large quantities?

See www.lifeway.com; www.christianbooks.com; or www.bibles.org.